Proposal Summary

This proposal executes the 50-day Communication Strategy defined in the official PDF, delivering six structured content formats (#1–#6) across defined channels. The initiative strengthens Redbelly's institutional positioning and community engagement while remaining under 10% of the annual Community and Marketing budgets. (Canva link end of the proposal)

Problem & Rationale (list the problem you are trying to solve)

Redbelly's value proposition as a compliant, institutional-grade blockchain is often misunderstood due to common crypto-related misconceptions. Existing communication formats can lack engagement or clarity, making it harder to educate audiences, activate the community, and reinforce institutional
